

Grade 9 Vocabulary

List 1

Word	Part of Speech	Definition	Sample Sentence	Your sentence
venerable	adjective	worthy of respect because of advanced age, dignity, etc.	At family reunions our venerable grandmother, now past eighty, is accorded great respect. puerile	adjective	foolish for a grown person to say or do; childish	Some seniors think it's fun to throw objects at passing cars, but I consider it puerile. levity	noun	lack of proper seriousness; improper gaiety	During the assembly George kept giggling; levity for which his teacher later scolded him. frugal	adjective	thrifty; not wasteful	Her frugal attitude allowed her to save a good deal of money at the supermarket. antipathy	noun	feeling of intense dislike	Because of his bigoted remarks, the speaker provoked the antipathy of the audience.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

avocation	noun	a hobby; supplementary occupation	Bird watching was an avocation that gave him many hours of pleasure. charlatan	noun	one who poses as an expert in a skill or profession for which he is not qualified	The Great Imposter is a movie about a charlatan who posed successfully as a surgeon. doughty	adjective	brave; strong and able	The doughty naval commander fought against very heavy odds. elucidate	verb	to make clear; explain	You may elucidate what happened after you relax for a while. indolent	adjective	lazy	He was indolent by nature but still blamed the heat wave for his inability to do work.

List 2

Word	Part of Speech	Definition	Sample Sentence	Your sentence
ludicrous	adjective	causing laughter because absurd or ridiculous; laughably absurd	His answer to the question was so ludicrous that everyone burst out laughing. callow	adjective	young and inexperienced; immature	He was surprised when his company hired a callow youth just out of college for the important new position. blithe	adjective	merry; cheerful; happy	Our neighbor is a blithe fellow who tells amusing stories. nepotism	noun	favoritism shown to relatives, especially in securing jobs	Whenever a President appoints a relative to a government position, the cry of nepotism is raised by the opposing party.
malign	verb	to speak evil of; to slander	I cannot bear to hear you malign such a good man.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

posthumous	adjective	occurring after death; published after the author's death	Only two of Emily Dickinson's poems were published before she died; the rest were posthumous. heinous	adjective	outrageously evil or wicked	The convict was severely punished for his heinous crime. clandestine	adjective	kept secret or hidden especially for some illegal purpose; secretive	The clandestine activities of the terrorist group were never discovered by the police. refute	verb	to disprove or demonstrate the falsity of something	The district attorney summoned many witnesses to refute the testimony of the defendant. cursory	adjective	hasty, hurried or not thorough	His cursory studying of the material could not give him a full understanding of the subject.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

List 3

Word	Part of Speech	Definition	Sample Sentence	Your sentence
reticent	adjective	quiet, reserved, or uncommunicative	Because she was so reticent, very few people got to know her well. travail	noun	hard work; exhausting labor; agony	His family found that the travail of serving ten years in a prison camp had changed him greatly. opulence	noun	wealth, luxury, or abundance.	She was amazed at the opulence of her neighbors. arduous	adjective	difficult, strenuous, or hard to achieve	Climbing the tree proved to be an arduous task but not a particularly dangerous one. paltry	adjective	practically worthless; petty; trifling	I complained not because of the paltry three cents that I was overcharged but because of the principle of the thing.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

abduct	verb	to carry off by force	The kidnappers abducted the child from her home. tractable	adjective	easily managed, taught, or controlled	The horse was tractable as long as he was going in the direction of the barn; otherwise he was unmanageable. obliterate	verb	to do away with or destroy; to blot out completely	He tried to obliterate from his memory any trace of that horrible day. prodigious	adjective	extraordinary in size or amount; enormous	Anyone who has orbited the Earth has performed a prodigious task. haughty	adjective	having or showing great pride in oneself and disdain, contempt, or scorn for others	He seemed at first to be rather cold and haughty, but we came to realize that this was due mainly to his shyness.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

List 4

Word	Part of Speech	Definition	Sample Sentence	Your sentence
equanimity	noun	Evenness of mind or temper; calmness; composure	When one becomes engaged in an argument it is best to retain one's equanimity in order to keep the dispute from exploding into something bigger. exacerbate	verb	To irritate or make bitter; to make more violent	The line of questions so exacerbated the witness that he refused to answer. gratuity	noun	A tip; payment for service for which no bill is offered	A gratuity of 10 to 15 percent of the check is customary in many restaurants. incredulous	adjective	Skeptical; doubtful; too extraordinary to be believed	The teacher was incredulous when he heard the amazing excuse. loquacious	adjective	Talkative; chatty	The lawyer's loquacious summation annoyed his client, who could see that the jury was losing attention.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

reprehensible	adjective	Deserving blame; wrong	The man did not find the action of his enemy as reprehensible as he thought he would. stringent	adjective	Strict; rigid; exacting	The Dean imposed a curfew of 7:00, the most stringent one in the history of the school. taciturn	adjective	Habitually silent; not given to conversation	John Wayne often portrays taciturn characters in his movies. ubiquitous	adjective	Present everywhere	The ubiquitous pizza parlors seem to be feeding America. vapid	adjective	Having lost its spirit or zest; spiritless	The guest speaker made one of the most vapid speeches the audience had ever heard.

List 5

Word	Part of Speech	Definition	Sample Sentence	Your sentence
meticulous	adjective	Overly or unduly careful about small details; extremely careful	She was extremely meticulous about her clothes and spent hours dressing for a party. altruism (altruist)	noun	Unselfish concern for the welfare of others; selflessness	Altruism is a virtue that very few people possess. ameliorate	verb	To improve or make better	Despite the Mayor's best efforts, he could not ameliorate the situation in the ghetto. rustic	adjective	Characteristic of the country and country people; simple and unsophisticated	His rustic manners seemed out of place in the elegant setting of the hotel dining room.
deride	verb	To make fun of; to scorn	The teacher told the obnoxious student not to deride his fellow classmates.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

diffident	adjective	Lacking self confidence; timid; shy	We discovered that beneath his diffident Personality there was an active and inquiring mind. ostracize	verb	To exclude someone from a social group by general consent	Although he was found innocent of treason, Aaron Burr was ostracized by society and left this country to live in England. truculent	adjective	Savage; cruel; fierce; warlike	The debate, which might have been very interesting, was marred by a truculent exchange of personal abuse. vindicate	verb	To clear of suspicion, as of a charge of wrongdoing	Since he has been fully vindicated by the investigation, he will resume his old position in the government. pugnacious	adjective	Eager and ready to fight; quarrelsome	He became much less pugnacious after he picked fights with boys who gave him sound beatings.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

List 6

Word	Part of Speech	Definition	Sample Sentence	Your sentence forbidding	adjective	looking dangerous, threatening, disagreeable, repellent	The glow from the distant lighthouse cast a forbidding hue over the ocean. inane	adjective	foolish, silly, lacking sense or meaning	We were trying not to sound inane as we spoke to the art historian, but we really knew nothing about the subject. inure	verb	to become accustomed to something, difficult, painful, etc.	I never became inured to running in the early morning. anarchy	noun	the complete absence of government, political disorder or violence, disorder in any activity	“If he gets up, we’ll all get up. It’ll be anarchy,” is a famous line from The Breakfast Club. enmity	noun	hostility, antagonism, hatred; the bitter feelings of an enemy	Many Americans cannot help but feel enmity toward Osama Bin Laden and his terrorist network.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

sinecure	noun	any office or position that brings profit or advantage without involving much work or responsibility	No one would ever need to retire from a job that is a sinecure. tacit	adjective	not expressed or declared openly, but implied or understood	Her nod was enough tacit approval for me to understand her message. inveigle	verb	to trick into doing something, to lead on with deception	The salesman had a reputation for inveigling his customers into buying things they did not intend to buy. anachronism	noun	anything that is or seems to be out of its proper time in history	For a girl to call her boyfriend her “beau” is anachronistic in 2011. avarice	noun	too great a desire to have wealth; greed for riches	His avarice increased with age, until it became an uncontrollable obsession for wealth.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

List 7

Word	Part of Speech	Definition	Sample Sentence	Your sentence
condone	verb	to excuse, forgive, or pardon; to overlook an offense	His behavior was so outrageous that I cannot see how anyone could even try to condone it. hackneyed	adjective	made trite and commonplace by overuse; stale	His writing style is weakened by repeated use of hackneyed phrases. imperative	adjective	required; absolutely necessary; compulsory	It is imperative that you submit your application before May 1. mundane	adjective	worldly, (as distinguished from heavenly); commonplace	Now that we have discussed all those profound philosophical problems, let's get down to the mundane job of preparing dinner. placid	adjective	calm; peaceful; undisturbed	Although the scene was still placid, I knew that before long we were in for some wild excitement.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

spurious	adjective	not genuine or true; lacking in authenticity; fake	The document on which we had intended to base our case turned out to be spurious--a crude counterfeit. stealthy	adjective	marked by secrecy or concealment; furtive; sly	Creeping stealthily, through the underbrush, the soldiers approached their enemies. urbane	adjective	refined; polite and courteous in a smooth, polished way; suave	I admired the urbane ease with which he handled the difficult situation. pariah	noun	a social outcast; one despised by society	In Lord of the Flies, Piggy quickly became the pariah of the small society that formed on the island.
desecrate	verb	to violate the sacredness of something; to profane; to treat as if not sacred	Vandals had desecrated the church by carving their initials on the large wooden doors.

List 8

Word	Part of Speech	Definition	Sample Sentence	Your sentence
vociferous	adjective	loud, noisy, or vehement in making one's feelings known	The judge ordered the vociferous spectator to be thrown out of the courtroom euphemism	noun	a mild or pleasant expression substituted for one that is harsh or blunt	Instead of calling Meredith "fat," he tactfully employed the euphemism "pleasingly plump." dearth	noun	a scarcity or lack; too small a supply or shortage	When the crops failed, there was a dearth of grain for flour, and bread prices skyrocketed. harbinger	noun	a person or thing that comes before to announce or give an indication of what is to follow	The first robin is a well-known harbinger of spring. The first vulture circling is a harbinger of something else. irate	adjective	angry, wrathful, incensed	He is usually even-tempered, but he becomes irate when he encounters rudeness.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

pinnacle	noun	the highest point, peak; culmination	At the very pinnacle of success, he enjoyed wealth, admiration from others, and widespread affection. recalcitrant	adjective	stubbornly disobedient or rebellious; hard to handle; unruly	We cannot allow one recalcitrant student to disrupt the work of the entire class. squalid	adjective	dirty from neglect; wretched	Jakob Riis photographed the awful living conditions in the squalid tenements of New York. nebulous	adjective	unclear; vague; cloudy, misty	His ideas were so nebulous that no one could agree or disagree with him. decry	verb	to speak out against strongly and openly; to denounce	The graduation speaker decried the tendency of too many Americans to seek wealth before all else.

List 9

Word	Part of Speech	Definition	Sample Sentence	Your sentence
extol	verb	to praise highly; to laud	The speaker extolled the doctor for his great contributions to mankind. innate	adjective	that which seems to be with someone from birth; existing naturally rather than acquired	His good taste and courtesy are not the result of training but rather are innate. enigma	noun	a perplexing or seemingly unexplainable matter or person	The many aspects of his changing personality make Tom an enigma to me. rancor	noun	a continuing and bitter hate or ill will; deep spite and malice.	Unfortunately, the debate between them was marked by personal rancor rather than honest discussion of the issues. invective	noun	a violent verbal attack; strong criticism, insult curses, etc.	It is possible to wage a hard-hitting political campaign without resorting to the use of invectives.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

acumen	noun	keenness and quickness in understanding and dealing with a situation; shrewdness	In the 19th century, many fortunes were made by men with great business acumen. obdurate	adjective	not easily moved to pity or sympathy; hard-hearted, stubborn or obstinate	In spite of all our efforts to persuade him, he remained obdurate. pragmatic	adjective	practical; concerned with actual, everyday things rather than with theory or speculation	Rather than listening to the politicians explain the theories of poverty, he had the pragmatic problem of getting food on the table. audacious	adjective	fearlessly daring; bold; arrogantly insolent	In this time of crisis, we need imaginative, bold and even audacious leadership.
banal	adjective	common, unoriginal, drearily predictable	The lecturer's banal comments bored the audience to tears.

List 10

Word	Part of Speech	Definition	Sample Sentence	Your sentence
culpable	adjective	Responsible for doing something wrong; deserving blame; guilty	Anyone who took any part in the conspiracy was considered equally culpable. ignominious	adjective	Deserving disgrace or shame; dishonorable; despicable	The traitor spent the last years of his life in ignominious exile. ostentatious	adjective	showing off boastfully; boastful	The man displayed his expensive new suit in a very ostentatious manner. vicissitudes	noun	changes in fortune; ups and downs in circumstances	You must learn to face the many vicissitudes of life. alacrity	noun	cheerful willingness or eagerness	Since Bob needed a job to pay for his college expenses, he accepted with alacrity the offer.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

decadent	adjective	in a state of decline or decay; deteriorating	When people lose interest in literature, it's a sign that the society is becoming decadent. garrulous	adjective	Talkative	The garrulous cab driver kept up a steady stream of chatter. temerity	noun	Reckless, boldness; foolish disregard for danger	In 1941, Japanese militarists had the temerity to risk the future of their country on the wild gamble of a knockout blow on Pearl Harbor. eclectic	adjective	composed of materials gained from many sources, systems, etc.	The statesman did not believe in only one political philosophy, but rather took a more eclectic view of world affairs. anathema	noun	a thing or person accursed or damned; a thing or person greatly detested; a formal curse	After almost 200 years, the name of Benedict Arnold is still anathema to Americans.

List 11

Word	Part of Speech	Definition	Sample Sentence	Your sentence
magnanimous	adjective	noble in mind; high-souled; generous in overlooking injury or insult; rising above pettiness or meanness	Churchill emphasized that we should be firm in war, defiant in defeat, and magnanimous in victory. misanthrope	noun	a person who hates or mistrusts all people	Because of his hateful stares and habitual silence, the man had the reputation of being a misanthrope. parsimonious	adjective	unreasonably cheap or stingy	He had become so accustomed to a parsimonious way of living that he denied himself even the simplest comforts. pundit	noun	a person who has or professes to have great learning; actual or self-professed authority	During the week of the Super Bowl, many so-called pundits are always telling you in advance which team will win the game. officious	adjective	offering unnecessary or unwanted advice or services; meddlesome, especially in an	To disguise the fact that he was performing no useful function, he developed an officious manner of intruding into everyone else's work

Grade 9 Vocabulary

		overbearing way
intrepid	adjective	bold; fearless; dauntless; very brave	All honors should go to the intrepid and highly trained men who are exploring outer space. lugubrious	adjective	very sad or mournful, especially in a way that seems exaggerated or ridiculous	His lugubrious expression was intended to suggest that he, more than anyone else, understood the sadness of the occasion. esoteric	adjective	intended for or understood by only a chosen few beyond the knowledge and understanding of most people	The lecture was too esoteric to be appreciated by most people in the audience. imperious	adjective	arrogant; haughty; seeking to dominate; overbearing	He is so inflated with the sense of his own importance that he adopts an imperious manner toward his subordinates. poignant	adjective	distressing to the feelings; touching; appealing to the emotions; affecting	Who can remain unmoved by the poignant scene in which Sidney Carton sacrifices his life for the woman he loves.

List 12

Word	Part of Speech	Definition	Sample Sentence	Your sentence
repugnant	adjective	distasteful; offensive; repulsive	I find his horrible manners utterly repugnant. tacit	adjective	implied but not expressed	Since mother raised no objection to my idea, I assumed that I had her tacit consent to go ahead with the plan. vicarious	adjective	involving sympathetic participation by a person in the experiences of another; experienced or endured or enjoyed through imaginative participation in the experiences of another	Having been too frail to participate in competitive sports, he took vicarious pleasure in his younger brother's football heroics. prevaricate	verb	to evade or conceal the truth; to deviate from the truth; to lie	Although you may be tempted to prevaricate, in the long run it will be better off if you own up to what you did.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

supercilious	adjective	contemptuously proud; haughty; disdainful	In spite of his supercilious attitude, I refuse to concede that he is our social superior. enervate	verb	to weaken; to deprive of force	The long stretch of hot, humid weather enervated all of us. plethora	noun	an excess; an overabundance	The boy has a plethora of energy and inventiveness, which he sometimes directs into mischief. prototype	noun	an original that serves as a model on which later stages are based or judged; an early and typical example	Salinger's brilliant Catcher in the Rye has served as the prototype for many novels about confused teenagers. askew	adverb	to one side; crookedly	In my efforts to straighten the picture, I knocked the lampshade askew.
abrogate	verb	to cancel or repeal by authority; to annul	Since the treaty had proved unworkable, the two nations decided to abrogate it.

List 13

Word	Part of Speech	Definition	Sample Sentence	Your sentence
bequeath	verb	to leave to another in a will; to hand down	My father bequeathed to his children a little money and the glorious example of a life well spent in the service of his country. laud	verb	to praise highly	At the testimonial dinner, he was lauded by community leaders for his service to the school. crass	adjective	grossly stupid or dull; coarse	His attempts to argue about a subject far beyond his depth seemed only to reveal his crass ignorance and conceit. complacent	adjective	smug; self satisfied; pleased with oneself	He had the complacent attitude of a man who considers himself superior to the "common herd." tribulation	noun	great misery or distress; great trouble	The tribulations which he suffered and overcame have made him a wiser, more compassionate person.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

cajole	verb	to coax or persuade with insincere or false words; to wheedle	Using rather far-fetched promises, I finally cajoled her into accompanying us to the fair chagrin	noun	mental distress due to disappointment or humiliation	When he did not receive an invitation, he tried unsuccessfully to conceal his deep-seated chagrin. docile	adjective	easily taught; responsive; tractable	Since I expected him to be unruly, I was pleasantly surprised by his gentle, docile behavior. vacillate	verb	to waver in mind or opinion	When you have considered all the factors carefully and have decided what is right, act without vacillating.
sage	adjective	marked by wisdom and good judgment	His sage advice has helped thousands of people deal with their problems.

List 14

Word	Part of Speech	Definition	Sample Sentence	Your sentence
dupe	verb	to deceive	Only an inexperienced and naive person could be duped into investing money in such a hairbrained scheme. acme	noun	highest point; pinnacle	Election to the Presidency was the acme of his long and brilliant career. deter	verb	to restrain or discourage from action through fear	Once he had decided where his duty lay, nothing could deter him. homily	noun	a sermon; a discourse emphasizing moral principles	Instead of those high-flown homilies, we need some good practical plans. epicure	noun	one who cultivates refined tastes, especially in eating and drinking	The store specializes in delicacies that will please even the most demanding epicures.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

surfeit	noun	excessive amount	I have had my surfeit of excuses and evasions; I want action! itinerant	adjective	traveling from place to place	Peter became an itinerant folk singer, traveling to college campuses all over the land. cache	noun	a hiding place	The conspirators had set up a cache of firearms in the old farmhouse. incite	verb	to instigate; to spur on	Only intolerable living conditions could have incited the peasants to rebellion. appease	verb	to bring to a state of peace or quiet; to satisfy by making concessions or giving in to	The tyrant can be appeased only by absolute submission to his will.

List 15

Word	Part of Speech	Definition	Sample Sentence	Your sentence
impetuous	adjective	impulsive; done hastily or rashly	Because he is impetuous by nature, John often has cause to regret his rash actions. perfidy	noun	treachery; breach of trust or faith	Because he betrayed our country, Benedict Arnold's name has become a symbol of perfidy in American history. hovel	noun	a dirty, wretched dwelling place	It is shocking that the families of the migratory workers had to live in such hovels. advent	noun	coming into view or being; arrival	The advent of winter brings thoughts of sleds, ice-skates, and skis.

Grade 9 Vocabulary

indigent	adjective	needy; poor	The purpose of this new program is to help those indigent people who can't help themselves. effrontery	noun	impudence; shameless boldness	How does he have the effrontery to ask me for help when he ignored my requests during my time of need. rectify	verb	to correct; to set right	It is good to rectify a mistake; it is better not to make it in the first place. amass	verb	to accumulate; to gather together	By saving systematically over the years, he amassed a large fortune.	