

Rubric for Independent Reading Conference

	1	2	3	4
9-10R2: Determine one or more themes or central ideas in a text and analyze its development, including how it emerges and is shaped and refined by specific details; objectively and accurately summarize a text.	Has difficulty identifying a theme or central idea in the text; does not demonstrate a careful reading of the text	Indicates an important theme and/or central idea; may have difficulty with understanding its overall development	Discusses multiple themes and provides specific examples to illustrate what the works suggests	Offers insight into multiple themes, providing specific examples to illustrate greater meaning
9-10R3: Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text. In literary texts, analyze how complex and/or dynamic characters develop, interact with other characters, advance the plot, or develop a theme. In informational texts, analyze how the author unfolds an analysis or argument, including the sequence, the introduction and development of ideas, and the connections that exist.	Does not provide an understanding of how characters contribute to the meaning of the work as a whole	Shows a basic understanding of the characters in the work, but may struggle to connect their development to the author's purpose	Provides a clear understanding of the relationship between characters and the author's purpose; understands the role minor characters play	Conveys a sophisticated understanding of characterization, analyzing the development of major and minor characters and making connections to the author's purpose
9-10R6: Analyze how authors employ point of view, perspective, and purpose to shape explicit and implicit messages (e.g., examine rhetorical strategies, literary elements and devices).	Fails to provide insight into the author's use of literary terms and/or rhetorical strategies	Indicates the presence of literary terms and/or rhetorical strategies	Examines the author's use of literary devices and/or rhetorical strategies	Explores the author's use of literary techniques and how they contribute to the author's purpose
9-10R9: Choose and develop criteria in order to evaluate the quality of texts. Make connections to other texts, ideas, cultural perspectives, eras, and personal experiences.	Struggles to provide evidence of any personal connection to the ideas in the text	Evaluates the quality of the text, but struggles to make deeper connections	Relies on specific evidence to support an evaluation of the text	Arrives at an thorough understanding of the text and demonstrates a personal connection

NOTE: Students who are unprepared for independent reading days or do not finish at least one work per quarter can score no higher than a 2.